

Leonard Euler

engineering assignment help reddit

Leonard Euler (1707-1783) - Swiss, German and Russian mathematician and mechanic who made a huge contribution to the development of these sciences (as well as physicists, astronomy and a number of applied sciences). Over the years of his life, over 850 works relating to various areas.

Euler deeply researched botany, medicine, chemistry, aeronautics, music theory, many European and ancient languages. He was a member of many academies of science, being the first Russian member of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences.

In the biography of Leonard Euler there are many interesting facts that we will tell in this article.

So, before you a brief biography of Euler. Biography Leonard Eilera

Leonard Euler appeared on April 15, 1707 in the Swiss city of Basel. He grew and brought up in the family of Pastor Paul Euler and his wife Margarent Brojer.

It is worth noting that the father of the future scientist was fond of mathematics. During the first 2 years of study at the university, he attended the courses of the famous mathematics Jacob Bernoulli.

Interesting Facts: The most dangerous animalmichail OstrogradskyFoto Regina Zbaraskoye should teach the child to 6 years of interest de Montenchtto