

Interesting facts about gold

university admission essay writing service

Interesting facts about gold will allow you to learn more about precious metals. Since ancient times, people are trying to take possession of as much as possible of gold used in various fields. This metal often became the cause of large wars in which there were tens or even hundreds of thousands of people.

So, in front of you with interesting facts about gold.

20 interesting facts about gold

Gold (AU) - element 11 of the sixth period of the periodic system of chemical elements, with atomic number 79. It is a noble metal.

The ancient Egyptians are considered the first to engage in the production of gold on a state leaving.

Do you know that until the 30s of the 18th century, gold in Russia (see interesting facts about Russia) was delivered only from abroad? The first steps in the gold mining in the country were undertaken in the territory of the Arkhangelsk province.

Gold is so soft metal that on hardness is comparable to the hardness of the human nail.

One of the first to introduce a coin from a silver and gold alloy, was the Persian king Darius I, who lived in the V century BC. e. Approximately the century later, Alexander Macedonian began to minimize his profile already on gold coins.

Interesting facts: The best of the best: by what criteria were gained special forces Alpha KGB USSR18 ridiculous pictures with inscriptions Svetlana Khodchenkova25 Interesting facts about volcano-modern valuables Clack remove the Christmas tree after holidays10 Books for the development of Intellectadadavid Samoyovdmity Mendeleevmarsssel Prutcitats about confidence of Andreev